Artists Biography:

Roslyn Rose, a New Jersey native, has recently relocated her studio to Rochester, NY. She was a nationally recognized etcher for many years before becoming intrigued with the medium of computer manipulated images. Although photography is now her main inspiration, she is a fine artist using the medium to seamlessly create Photographic Montages.

Solo shows include Ceres Gallery NYC; Hoboken (NJ) Historical Museum); New Century Artists Gallery, NYC; Nathans Gallery, West Paterson, NJ; and Pen & Brush Club, NYC. Recent group exhibits have included the NAWA “Alternate Vision,” Morris Museum, NJ; NJ State Museum Annual, Trenton, NJ; “Jersey Woman Artists Now,” George Segal Gallery, Montclair University, NJ; Washington Gallery of Photography, Bethesda, MD; Ceres Gallery National Juried Shows, NYC; Longview Museum of Fine Arts, Texas; and “ISEA International Art Exhibition,” NWS Gallery, San Pedro, CA. In October, Ms. Rose’s artwork will be part of an exhibit at the Image City Photography Gallery in Rochester, NY.

Awards include Best-in-Show at the Mountain Art Show, Bernardsville, NJ; Computer Art and Photography Awards at National Association of Women Artists Annual exhibitions; and The Directors’ Award at the Period Gallery, Omaha, NE. She received a Best-in-Show award at a recent International Society of Experimental Artists exhibition.

Roslyn’s artwork is in the collections of many museums and corporations including the Newark, NJ, Museum of Art; NJ State Museum; NAWA Collection at Voorhees-Zimmerli Museum, Rutgers University; Stevens Institute, Hoboken, NJ; Noyes Museum, Oceanville, NJ; and the McAllen International Museum in Texas.

Ms. Rose is a Nautilus Member of the International Society of Experimental Artists and a member of the National Association of Women Artists. Ceres Gallery in New York City and hob’art gallery in New Jersey represent the artist.
