NEW STAFF MEMBERS AT EPISCOPAL SENIORLIFE COMMUNITIES

Episcopal SeniorLife Communities is pleased to announce the following appointments:

Megan Lovejoy

Megan Lovejoy was appointed to Director of The Center for Rehabilitation at the Episcopal Church Home in September. She has more than 20 years of experience as an occupational therapist specializing in geriatrics and was former Director of Rehabilitation at LeRoy Village Green while working per diem at ESLC. Megan is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the therapy team, and for ensuring positive therapeutic outcomes and that residents benefit from the highest level of therapy services. She has her Bachelor of Science degree in Occupational Therapy from Keuka College. Megan resides in Greece with her husband and four children.

Jason Bluett

Jason Bluett was recently appointed to Director of Information Technology for Episcopal SeniorLife Communities. In his new role, Jason is responsible for oversight of the organization's IT operations. He has more than 18 years of experience in networking, system engineering and cyber security with 6+ years in managing global IT enterprises. He obtained his Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science from S.U.N.Y. Brockport. In his free time, Jason serves as the Cub Scout Master for Pack 332 in Henrietta and is a leader in the Rochester, NY chapter of VMUG (VMware User Group). He resides in Gates with his wife and three daughters.
